UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH · INTERGENERATIONAL ADVISORY PANEL

YOUR VOICE CAN SHAPE RESEARCH

REAL PEOPLE, REAL CHANGE

Join our advisory panel to explore age discrimination at all ages.

1

Shape the Questions

- Suggest questions you would like to explore
- Discuss your ideas with people of different ages
- Help choose which questions we investigate first

2

Make Sense Together

- Look at simple charts and summaries of findings
- Discuss what might explain the results
- Suggest other explanations or questions to check

3

Create and Share

- Choose the key messages you want others to hear
- Co-design short videos
- Help develop policy and research outputs

Who can join

- Aged 18 or over and living in the UK
- All backgrounds welcome
- No research experience needed

What's involved

- Around 9 meetings, Jan–Sep 2027
- Online or in person in Edinburgh
- Around 10 hours in total

What you get

- Learn about ageism and how research works
- Meet people of different ages and share ideas
- Thank-you vouchers and a certificate recognising your contribution

January 2027 – September 2027

Policy briefs · Short videos · Academic outputs

Scan the QR code to find out more about the project and complete a short expression-of-interest form!

https://edinburgh.eu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_blaO0zukQEsw2IS

You can also call or text +44-7536341208

Or email: xli13@ed.ac.uk

This 5-minute form lets us know you're interested. You'll also find more information about the project at the start of the form.

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH